

RE: Notice of Material Change

- Red color material used for Red buttons and filters of the following products.

Description

You are kindly advised that we will change the red color material used for red buttons and filters of the following products.

This is caused as the present material supplier stop its production and we have to adapt its substitution.

Applicable Products

Lighted Switch

CH, EH, KC, ST and TA series, Red button and Red filter

Indicator

BL, CL and ML series, dome type Red cover

BL, CL, ML, TL, VL and 3L series, Red filter

From when in effect

These products will be changed to the new material type from April 01, 2010.

Others

- There is no change of price.
- There is no change of LED rating.
- There is no change of brightness.
- There is a slight change in color.

We appreciate your good understanding on the matter and are looking forward to having your continued support and association.

We will provide you with the highest quality of services as before.

Please do not hesitate to contact with us, if you have any questions on this.